

D. OGDEN MILLS DIES SUDDENLY

Without Warning Death Came To Well Known Philanthropist and Financier.

WENT TO CALIFORNIA IN '49.

Had Prominent Part in Building the Southern Pacific—Was Interested in Many Banks.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 4.—Darius Ogden Mills, philanthropist and financier, father of Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, wife of the ambassador to Great Britain, interested in many corporations, died at his winter home near here tonight of heart disease. He was 84 years old.

Death came almost without warning after a period of better health than Mr. Mills had enjoyed in several years. Mrs. Reid was the only child at his bedside when the end came, his son, Ogden Mills, and his wife having started for New York yesterday, believing the aged financier to be in excellent condition. Mr. Mills' health had been feeble and Dr. Hertzstein was summoned hurriedly last night when his patient was suddenly attacked. He arrived shortly after Mr. Mills' death.

Mr. Mills was born in North Salem, Westchester county, N. Y., in 1825. He was educated at North Salem and at Mount Pleasant academy, Sing Sing, N. Y. Starting his business career as a clerk in New York city, he became cashier of the Merchants' Bank of Erie county at Buffalo, in 1847. When the gold excitement arose, Mr. Mills came to California, arriving in 1849, to take, from the start, a large part in the development of the Golden state.

He first founded the D. O. Mills bank in Sacramento and in 1861 became president of the Bank of California, which post he held till 1867. When this institution became insolvent in 1873, Mr. Mills again took the reins and placed it again on a sound basis.

The greater part of his time since 1850 was spent in New York city, where he built a system of hotels and lodging houses for the poor, founded a training school for male nurses and was active in many other charities.

He was president of the Bank of New York, the Morton Trust company and the United States Trust company. He was a trustee of the Atlantic coastship company, chairman of the Fordham for incurables, a trustee of the metropolitan museum of art, the Carnegie institute of Washington, Lick observatory and the American Geological society, besides helping to organize and guide many other philanthropic organizations.

Mr. Mills had a prominent part in the building of the Southern Pacific railroad and for many years was a member of its directory. When the first sign of the falling of his remarkable energy came two years ago, he resigned from the Southern Pacific and Erie railroads. His holdings in upwards of 30 corporations in whose affairs he once took an active part are said to cover many millions of dollars.

WHAT MRS. SAGE'S GIFT DOES FOR YALE

New Haven, Conn., Jan. 4.—Mrs. Russell Sage's gift of $500,000 to Yale has made possible the most extensive building changes ever planned by the university. It is announced that the construction of two new buildings will be begun immediately. The physics laboratory, which was recently given by H. D. and J. J. Sloane, of New York, will be housed in the first structure erected and a new biological laboratory will be the second. The Sloane laboratory will cost $450,000. The cost of the biological laboratory, probably will be about $200,000.

SENTENCED FOR OFFERING BRIBE TO U. S. OFFICER

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 4.—Pleading guilty to a charge of offering a bribe to a United States officer, Will Criger of Pana was fined $50 and costs and given a sentence of one day in jail by Federal Judge Humphrey yesterday. Criger was accused of offering $500 to John C. Black, head of the United States civil service commission for an appointment as rural mail carrier. Criger had taken the examination and claims he had been told the quickest way to get the appointment was to buy it from the commissioners.

RESIGNED BECAUSE HIS DISTRICT WAS TOO GOOD

Hillsdale, Mich., Jan. 4.—Justice of the Peace Frieble resigned yesterday because local opinion has made his district so good that there is nothing for a justice of the peace to do. The justices letter to the mayor says:

"I most respectfully hereby tender my resignation as a justice of the peace of the city of Hillsdale to take effect on March 1, 1910. Cause: county prohibition, local option, no drunks, no vagrants, no disorderly persons, no business to further make the office desirable, or in any way profitable."

MOVE FOR REDUCED FIRE INSURANCE RATES

Chicago, Jan. 4.—A national movement was begun yesterday to obtain uniform reduction in fire insurance rates based upon classifications of statistics by states which, it is said, will save annually several million dollars in premiums in Chicago alone.

COLD WEATHER AT WEISER.

Waisar, Idaho, Jan. 4.—With the thermometer indicating 15 below zero this vicinity is experiencing the coldest weather in 22 years.

The fuel shortage now approaches the proportions of a famine owing to delayed shipment of coal.

DR. COOK HASN'T TOUCHED HIS CARNEGIE TRUST CREDIT

New York, Jan. 4.—Dr. Cook has never made use of the $15,000 letter of credit he obtained from the Carnegie Trust company just before he disappeared about a month ago, according to a statement by R. B. Moorehead, of the banking institution. The explorer also has a large cash credit with this trust company which cannot be withdrawn before Feb. 1, as it is a time deposit. At the time of his sudden departure he withdrew all the money to his credit in his checking account.

CAPITAL AND LABOR.

Mount Vernon, N. Y., Jan. 4.—John Mitchell, the labor leader who was asked by the Temple club of this city to describe what he regarded as an ideal relation between capital and labor has replied as follows:

"It is my firm conviction that the ideal of trade unionism will be obtained when a strong organization of labor supplied with ample reserve fund and embracing every workman in its trade will find itself face to face with an equally strong association of employers, embracing every employer in the trade. The two will then meet upon a basis of absolute equality."

It is a dangerous thing to take a cough medicine containing opiates that nearly stifles your cough instead of curing it. Foley's Honey and Tar loosens and cures the cough and expels the poisonous germs, thus preventing pneumonia and consumption. Refuse substitutes and take only the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. Schramm-Johnson Drug Co.

MAYOR GAYNOR FAVORS MORE FOOTBALL PLAYERS

New York, Jan. 3.—The quills of Mayor Gaynor continue to enliven New York. Today he sent the following letter to William G. Edwards, commissioner of street cleaning, better remembered as "Big Bill" Edwards of the Princeton football eleven:

"My Dear Commissioner—Take on a few more football players and maybe you will do better yet. Sincerely yours, WILLIAM J. GAYNOR."

The statement given out yesterday by Mayor Gaynor seemed to indicate that Edwards would be removed to make way for a new commissioner of the mayor's own choosing. Therefore "Big Bill" had no comment to make today on the mayor's praise. Besides Edwards, there are the following football stars on the force:

James Hogan, an old Yale captain. Harry Vaughan, the Yale only, and George Buckwalter of Princeton. Next week will test the new mayor's quality with regard to one of the most important questions of policy a mayor must decide. Is this to be a "wide open" or a "closed" town? Are Sundays to be dry or wet?

There were plenty of questioners to ask the mayor "How about it?" this afternoon, but to all inquirers he begged to be excused from any expression of opinion until he had time to make what changes in the police department he intends. William F. Baker is still commissioner of police, but the mayor's statement of last night indicates that a new man will have the job.

SENTENCE OF MAN WHO USED MAILS TO DEFRAUD

Seattle, Wn., Jan. 4.—Edward H. Stubley convicted of using the mails to defraud easterners was sentenced to serve six years in the federal prison on McNeil's Island and pay a fine of $2,000 by Judge C. H. Hanford in the federal court yesterday.

Stubley obtained letters from lodging houses mail boxes and, securing names of people in the past, he would write as a relative or friend in need of funds.

JARMAN TELLS A SORROWFUL TALE

Says His Wife Threw Things at Him and Made Life a Burden.

WANTS HIS SINGLENESS AGAIN

Files Complaint for Divorce in Which He Relates Many Woes of His Short Married Life.

Heber C. Jarman was driven out of his own house by his wife, Mrs. Ethel R. Jarman, and his mother-in-law, Mrs. Emma Baker, who assaulted him and humiliated him in every way, according to a complaint for divorce which he filed Monday in the Third district court. He seeks the custody of their two children, Zelnora, 2 years old, and a baby 2 months old, charging his wife with being infatuated with other men, and especially a soldier at Ft. Douglas.

They were married in Salt Lake on March 17, 1907. Soon after their marriage, he alleges, she began to show a disposition of indifference toward him. This was followed up by abusive language and the mother-in-law "chimed in" with the daughter to make his life more miserable. When he went to the hospital recently and was operated upon for appendicitis, his wife said that she wished the operation had killed him, he says. As soon as he was released from the hospital, Mrs. Jarman began to belittle him and humiliate him. On several occasions his wife slapped his face and Mrs. Baker assaulted him. They threw shoes, knives and dishes at him until he was compelled to spend all his time dodging things or leave the house. He says that Mrs. Jarman does not take proper care of their children and that she entertains other men and goes out with them.

DID NOT GET HIS PAY.

George Gaglios filed suit Monday in the Third district court to recover $126 for furnishing music in a Greek beer hall. The suit was brought against George V. Valtos, Tony Petrow, Louis Pappasideros and Hares Panon who engaged Gaglios to fiddle in the Turkish coffee house and saloon at 542 west Second South street. They agreed to pay him $2 a night. He declares that he furnished the required amount of music but that the proprietors neglected to pay him.

RELEASED ON PROBATION.

Three boys who were arrested for stealing lead from the smelters and selling it were arraigned Monday before Judge Alexander McMaster and released on probation. They live in Murray and are required to report every week to G. M. Mumford, probation officer.

NOW UNDER ADVISEMENT.

Judge John A. Marshall of the federal court on Monday took the case of

I. C. Glosz, involuntary bankrupt, under advisement, after having listened to arguments. The matter was brought before the court on an appeal from the decision of Charles Baldwin, referee in bankruptcy.

FOR CRUELTY TO ANIMALS.

Peter Chackos, Thomas Plovlatas, George Christophos and Lewis Pasovras, four Greeks who are alleged to be responsible for the starving of horses on a ranch near Redwood road, were arrested Monday afternoon upon the complaint of Dr. T. B. Beatty of the Utah Human society. As near as can be learned the horses were allowed to starve as the result of a dispute between the Greeks who owned the ranch and some Greek horse traders. Neither the owners nor the traders would feed the animals, although there was plenty of hay nearby.

JURISDICTION OVER INDIANS.

An opinion of Judge John A. Marshall of the federal court, handed down several years ago, in which the court ruled that the federal court had no jurisdiction over Indians who had received their allotments, has been reversed by the United States supreme court, according to notices received Monday by W. E. Johnson, Indian agent. The reversal will have a far-reaching effect locally, as the Indian office for several years has been compelled to try its cases in courts which had local jurisdiction. It will bring all of the Indian cases to the federal court at Salt Lake for trial.

LIFE OF A PIMPLE

Complexions are Cleared and Pimples Disappear Overnight Without Trouble.

The dispensers of poslam, a new skin discovery, ask that notice be given that no one is urged to purchase it without first obtaining an experimental package. Everyone who has tried it knows that the fifty-cent box, on sale at Schramm-Johnson Drug stores and all drug stores is sufficient to cure the worst case of eczema, where the surface affected is not too large. The itching ceases on first application. It will also cure acne, tetter, blotches, scaly scalp, hives, barber's and every other form of itch, including itching feet. Being flesh colored and containing no grease the presence of poslam on exposed surfaces, such as the face and hands, is not perceptible. Water and soap cannot be used in connection with it, as these irritate and prolong skin troubles, sometimes even causing them.

As to the experimental package of poslam, it can be had free of charge by mail or the Emergency Laboratories 32 West Twenty-fifth street, New York. It alone is sufficient to clear the complexion over night and to rid the face of pimples in twenty-four hours.
